

New Jersey Chapter Speaker Series
Thursday, April 13 at 1:00 pm EST,
via Zoom

Cuba in Crisis: Perspectives for the United States' Best Enemy

Cuba's socialist government has successfully maneuvered the political succession from Fidel to Raúl Castro, and on to a successor from the generation born after the 1959 Revolution. However, it has not yet found a recipe against the deep economic and social crisis which has led to a mass exodus, with more than 220,000 Cubans arriving to the U.S. in 2022. With economic reform clearly on the agenda, what are the prospects for change in Cuba? And how can U.S. policy constructively engage with Cuba?

To register:

https://us06web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_l4JOyBWjRROgipVgUcCAYw

Dr. Bert Hoffmann

This event is co-sponsored by the NJ Chapter of the Fulbright Association and the Sir Arthur Lewis Institute of Social and Economic Studies, University of the West Indies, Kingston, Jamaica.

Dr. Bert Hoffmann is Lead Researcher at the German Institute for Global and Area Studies (GIGA), Hamburg, and Head of the GIGA Berlin Office. He also is Professor of Political Science at Freie Universität Berlin and a principal investigator in the German-Latin American Centre of Infection & Epidemiology Research & Training (GLACIER). He has published widely on Latin American and Caribbean affairs, and has followed closely the political, social and economic developments in Cuba over the past 30 years.